Grey House Publishing Canada announces Canadian Who's Who now available on CIRC

Grey House Publishing is excited to announce its addition of Canadian Who's Who to Canada's Information Resource Centre (CIRC). Now in its 101st year of print publication, this unique directory is the standard reference source of contemporary Canadian biographies and offers top contacts for important community and business networking. The online database of Canadian Who's Who will provide instant access to 13,000 notable Canadians included in the current edition, as well as a further 10,000 archived biographies.

Canadian Who's Who provides detailed information on the accomplishments of notable Canadians, from coast to coast. All who are interested in the achievements of Canada's most influential citizens and their significant contributions to the country and the world beyond should acquire this database.

This new addition to Grey House Publishing's already extensive online resource will provide users with more current information on Canadians of all backgrounds. Biographies on individuals involved with politics, sports, arts and sciences, academia, business and many other realms can be discovered in just a few clicks! Those who are chosen to appear in Canadian Who's Who are selected by merit alone; their biographies therefore focus on the contributions such people have made to Canadian society.

With this database, users can research Canada's diverse culture and discover how specific individuals have risen to the top of various Canadian organizations. Detailed entries give information on date and place of birth, educational background, family details, career information, memberships, creative works, honours, languages, and awards, together with full addresses.

Updates to Canadian Who's Who biographical information will be made by its publisher, Third Sector Publishing, and Grey House Publishing Canada would like to thank them for the opportunity to provide our customers with this exceptional reference source on contemporary Canadian biographies.
