Grey House Publishing Announces the Release of FPbonds: Government, 2025

This highly regarded annual publication provides must-have information on publicly issued bonds to help round financial decision making in fast-changing times.

The 2025 edition of FP Bonds – Government, the tenth to be published by Grey House Publishing Canada, lists outstanding publicly and privately held debt securities, together with their features and provisions, issued by the Government of Canada, the provinces and selected federal and provincial agencies. All issues and amounts are outstanding as of March 2025, unless otherwise indicated.

Information includes:

- Lists containing features and provisions of all of bonds issued by the Government of Canada, by provincial governments and selected federal and provincial agencies. Each bond description also includes its rating.
- Ratings supplied by Dominion Bond Rating Service (DBRS) as of March 31, 2025.
- A separate section on Eurobonds (Euro debt).
- Important economic data on Canada and the provinces.
- Important notes on Canadian taxation particularly as it effects bonds.

Newly added front matter for this edition includes a look at the Bank of Canada's use of quantitative easing (QE) during the COVID-19 pandemic, a theoretical look at adopting an all-to-all market structure to improve the resilience of government bond markets during periods of turmoil, and an examination of the trading behaviour of foreign central banks and its potential impact on liquidity in the Government of Canada bond market.

FPbonds - Government is also available as a searchable online database. Monthly updates allow you to access the most current data and focus your research with broad or specific search queries. Search our 38,000+ executives and instantly download lists for mailing or further research. This is an indispensable tool for all your marketing or research needs!
