FPsurvey: Mines & Energy

Reviews

"FP Survey-Mines & Energy is a company directory from the Financial Post that contains publicly traded mining and energy resource companies in Canada including those in the areas of industrial minerals, oil, electricity, renewable power, and gas…This directory is well organized with a table of contents, introduction, features, definitions and abbreviations, and an index…The company profiles are a nice overview of the public companies in Canada that are comparable to other similar directories…Overall, this is a standard company directory that would be useful for finding basic information on Canadian public energy and mining companies. The content looks to be up to date…The organization of the directory is easy to follow and the added definitions, abbreviations, and other explanations help users to understand."

FP Survey-Mines & Energy is "a guide to all natural resource companies publicly traded and reporting in Canada." Included in this resource, now in its 91st edition, is a directory to companies involved in "the exploration for, development and production of base and precious metals, industrial minerals, oils and gas and electricity generation." Each entry contains: full legal name; introductory paragraph; profile of company; recent mergers and acquisitions activity; predecessor information about company; directors, trustees and other executive officers; capital stock; major shareholder; price range; dividends; long-term debt; related companies (wholly owned subsidiaries, subsidiaries); and financial statistics. Data is obtained for each company from annual reports, news releases, company websites, stock exchange bulletins, and "solicitations to the companies via data forms, telephone calls, faxes and email." In addition to the company entries, this resource contains a Guide to Financial Statements; Top Ten by Industry in each of 22 Industry Groups of the Global Industry Classification Standards; the Year in Review, a synopsis of activity from July 1, 2016, to August 8, 2017; Abbreviations; and an index of Companies. FP Survey-Mines & Energy provides a wealth of company information and is recommended to larger academic and research libraries.
