Grey House Publishing Announces the Publication of Governments Canada Winter-Spring 2016

Grey House Publishing is proud to announce the publication of Governments Canada's Winter-Spring 2016 edition. Governments Canada has been printed by Grey House Publishing for the past four years, taking the place of the popular Scott's Directories Government Index which ceased publishing in 2011. Released semi-annually, these two editions (Winter/Spring, Summer/Fall) provide vital information on provincial and federal government changes, updates and happenings.

This new edition of Governments Canada is more up-to-date than ever, with over 38,000 key contacts and approximately 10,000 government contacts. This title is a valuable resource for students, government members, researchers and library patrons and it serves the needs of every community by providing people with a tool that will answer all of their governments-related questions.

The Winnipeg Free Press came to the conclusion that Governments Canada is:

"...now the most authoritative record Manitobans have for the upper-level structure of their government. Geared to businesses and lobbyists, it provides access to the key decision-makers in the federal and provincial governments."

The editorial team has done extensive research to ensure all important changes to cabinets, ministries and members of the legislative assembly have been made to this Winter/Spring edition. Furthermore, all information regarding the recent provincial elections in Alberta and PEI, as well as by-elections in Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nunavut, Ontario, Quebec, Saskatchewan and the House of Commons have been noted and updated.
